Good afternoon! I hope everyone has had a great Easter and enjoyed lots of yummy chocolate! I always set myself the challenge to finish my Easter egg on Easter Sunday and once again I achieved this:) I have enjoyed spending the time with my family and going for lots of walks. I am very lucky to live in the New Forest so there are lots of walks to do. We often get lost! These photos are from when we got stuck on the wrong side of the river and had to climb a tree to cross it. I was very scared!
