

Design a new front cover for the book you are currently reading.

Recommend a book that you ♥!

This week I have been rereading Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone. It has been a while since I read this and couldn't remember how good it is. I recommend this book for Year 5s.

Who would you recommend your book to and why?

COMPETITION TIME!

Where is the strangest place you can read! This week I would like to see all the places you can read!

It could be in the bathtub or on the sofa or under the table!

This week, I want you to write your own story. It can be long or short. It could be a sequel or prequel to something you have read or a completely new story.

Don't forget to send them to your teachers.

I hope you enjoy your reading wherever you are. Don't forget to share with your class teachers what you have been reading (or listening to) – they might want to read it themselves!

Here are some new books for you to listen to...

Year R – Hairy Maclary from Donaldson's Dairy (One of your recommended reads.)
